

Eaton Arrowsmith 2019-2020 Academic Year - Tuition Refund Policy

"Eaton Arrowsmith" refers to Eaton Arrowsmith locations in Vancouver, Redmond and White Rock, Eaton Arrowsmith Adults in Vancouver and Redmond and Magnussen School in Vancouver, each of which is referred to herein as "Eaton Arrowsmith" or the "school."

Thank you for enrolling at Eaton Arrowsmith, and for your commitment to joining us in our vision of empowering positive change, and our dedication to strengthening capacities in our students.

Due to our specific and individualized cognitive curriculum, Eaton Arrowsmith receives no government funding. We also do not ask for a large deposit from families upon enrolment in the school, only for enough to cover the cost of educating the student for the year. Each year, staffing and other decisions are made based on the number of students committed to attending the following year. Financial commitments are made for the year to staff salaries, facilities, programs, maintenance, and other fees, and withdrawal of a student does not reduce these expenses. With this in mind, this tuition refund policy has been created to reflect Eaton Arrowsmith's financial commitments for the year.

This tuition refund policy is followed at Eaton Arrowsmith Schools in BC, Eaton Arrowsmith Academy in Washington State, Eaton Arrowsmith Adults in both BC and Washington State, and Magnussen School in BC. Unless a withdrawal/dismissal falls under one of the conditions outlined below, no refund will be provided.

Please do not hesitate to ask if you have any questions regarding the following information.

Eaton Arrowsmith Tuition Refund Policy:

- 1. For withdrawals from all programs: if Eaton Arrowsmith receives tuition from the student, or a person on behalf of the student, Eaton Arrowsmith will retain an administrative fee of $250 and any applicable assessment fees ($2,600 for a full assessment and $250 for a Cognitive Enhancement Program or Cognitive Intensive Program assessment), and then refund the remainder of the tuition fees paid in relation to the program in which the student is enrolled if one of more of the following applies:
 - (a) the student is enrolled in the program without having met the admission requirements (www.eatonarrowsmith.com/admissions-process/) and the student and/or his or her family did not misrepresent his or her learning profile when applying for admission.
 - (b) an international student is denied a study permit and delivers a copy of the rejection letter issued by Citizenship and Immigration Canada to Eaton Arrowsmith before the student's first day in their program.
